Publication Consent Form
Permission to publish

St Bishoy College is seeking permission to use your child’s photographs and/or written work as promotional material for the school. This may be done by several means but is not restricted to: reprinting in the school newsletter, participating in activities which may be photographed and published on the school website, or possibly through editorials published through local newspapers.

The school seeks permission for written work, photographs, art work, models, film, or audio-recordings.
